

Go Higher Trip Sheet 2009

A 'topo' guide to all our trips listed on one page.

In addition to our annual ice climbing trip to Colorado, this year we will be climbing in Rjukan, Norway in March.

Argolis, Greece 4th - 11th April, £600

A week of early season rock climbing on the limestone crags of this beautiful Greek peninsula. Convenient flights to Athens, local accommodation and warm weather. A great start to the year.

Seaside crag in Argolis, Greece

Navarre, Spanish Pyrenees 16th - 23rd May, £540

We fly to Biarritz/Bilboa to go cragging on the southern side of Pyrenees in the kingdom of Navarre. This week combines the rustic charm of this quiet area with accessible climbing. A new venue well worth exploring.

The area around Ariège, France

Ariège Pyrenees, Southern France 12th - 19th September, £610

Based in Tarascan, deep in the Ariège valley surrounded by both limestone and granite crags. The area offers single and multi-pitch sport climbs which prepare us for the 10 pitch routes on the comfortable and well equipped slabs of the south face of the Dent d'Orlu.

Kalymnos, Greece 18th - 26th October, £560

A rock climbing paradise in the Aegean, the island of Kalymnos has routes to delight everyone.

Island climbing, Kalymnos

Spain 5th - 12th Dec, ~£580

Convenient flights, a wealth of great crags and climbs and a real climber- oriented environment. Spain in December never fails to please.

UK Weekends

We will hold a series of climbing weekends
14th - 15th March - Peak District climbing, £45
14th - 15th November - Peak District Climbing, £45

Other weekends will be posted on our website.

And of course we will be climbing in the Lake District throughout the year.
